BTree Analysis

Strategy:

We will first count the number of nodes, level by level.

Then, we will add the minimum number of keys per node (n).

The minimum number of nodes will tell us the largest possible height (h), allowing us to find an upper-bound on height.